

About ANZSOG

ANZSOG, the Australia and New Zealand School of Government, is a consortium of governments, universities, and business schools dedicated to delivering tailored programs that meet the real world challenges of public sector managers.

With its unique structure, ANZSOG's programs are drawn from its networks of inter-government jurisdictions and access to leading international academics and practitioners. The programs feature a dynamic mix of innovative, world-class professional development education and training in the craft of public administration, policy and management.

ANZSOG has three flagship programs: Executive Programs and Workshops, the Case Program and the Research Program.

ANZSOG's Executive Programs and Workshops offer a post-graduate qualification and a range of executive courses that aim to strengthen the leadership and management capability of future public sector leaders:

- Executive Master of Public Administration is a two-year part-time graduate program for middle management sponsored by the participants' department. The program is taught by leading academics and practitioners from Australia and New Zealand; past presenters have included Prime Ministers, Premiers and a number of chief executives of government departments
- Executive Fellows Program is a three week residential program tailored at the executive level, and also sponsored by the participants' respective department. ANZSOG sources world experts to develop the strategic leadership and managerial skills of senior public sector executives

- the Executive Workshops operate throughout the year and offer middle to senior managers customised courses that meet specific educational needs identified by ANZSOG government partners.

The Case Program is responsible for producing original case studies based on real public sector situations that are used for teaching purposes in the School's executive programs. There are over 70 case studies in the library that offer quality, topical cases in public sector management development that focuses on current events and issues in Australia, New Zealand, Commonwealth Nations, and the Pacific and South Eastern Asia.

The Research Program aims to develop innovative, cutting-edge research into public administration, policy, and management. The program's distinctive approach favours networked, collaborative research that delivers practical solutions and outcomes for government whilst offering a number of research activities, such as public lectures, conferences, and publications.

Along with ANZSOG's programs, the School holds a number of collaborative initiatives with its partners and key national and international networks that provide a platform for policy development, research, and analysis.
