

Advance your public sector career in 2018

Plan your executive development now

ANZSOG is a global leader in public sector education and research. Created by government for government, ANZSOG supports the development of better educated, informed and motivated public sector leaders. We work to ensure the development of better ideas, evidence and networks.

"I am more assured and focused when I tackle challenges at work. I have also applied the course learning to help myself, my team and colleagues to manage the ongoing changes to the organisation and the public service."

Liem Ngo
Principal Manager, Project Coordination and Government Liaison,
Transport for NSW

"The EFP has been well worthwhile. The experience is something I can take back to my workplace and put into action. It will help me as a leader but also, importantly, the team. It will help ensure that we're all producing great results for government."

Paula Ganly
First Assistant Secretary Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet, Australian Government

Workshops

The 2018 Executive Education workshop schedule offers learning opportunities in key areas critical to those working in government. Follow a learning pathway across a range of connected topics, such as leadership or regulation, or register for a one-off workshop to gain knowledge about a particular concept. One-day workshops are available for busy executives to hone their strategic and critical thinking capabilities.

Executive workshop	Course leader(s)	Date	City
Cost benefit analysis - concepts and practice	Dr Leo Dobes	22-23 May	Canberra
Public policy and programs masterclass	Dr Chris Walker	6-7 June	Melbourne
Behaviour change in public policy masterclass	BehaviourWorks Australia	27-28 June	Canberra
Solving complex problems well	Dr Nick Fleming	14-15 August	Canberra
Women leading the public sector	Dr Christine Nixon / Prof Amanda Sinclair	21-23 August	Wellington
Evaluation for the public sector	Dr George Argyrous / Prof Patricia Rogers	5-6 September	Melbourne
Strategic responses to corruption	Adam Shapiro	11-14 September	Sydney
Authentic leadership	Dr Dana Born	1-2 October	Melbourne
Communicate for impact and influence	Dr Zina O'Leary / Debra Lawrance	10-11 October	Canberra
Managing regulation, enforcement and compliance	Prof Malcolm Sparrow	28 October-2 November	Melbourne
Communicate for impact and influence	Dr Zina O'Leary	21 November	Wellington
Communicate for impact and influence	Dr Zina O'Leary	22 November	Wellington

Programs

Executive Master of Public Administration

The Executive Master of Public Administration is a two-year postgraduate qualification designed to give high potential, experienced mid-level managers and aspiring leaders a thorough grounding in the theory and practice of public administration.

Who should attend?

Applicants demonstrating strong leadership potential and a commitment to career development in the public sector.

Program commences

January 2019

Applications close

September 2018

Executive Fellows Program

The Executive Fellows Program is an intensive, three-week residential program for senior public service executives. With an emphasis on enhancing strategic capabilities, this program focuses on the leadership, relationship and management skills required to effectively lead in an increasingly complex public sector.

Who should attend?

This program is designed for high performing senior executives. We welcome applications from the not-for-profit sector.

Program commences

November 2018

Applications close

August 2018

Towards Strategic Leadership

Towards Strategic Leadership is specifically designed for experienced public sector managers who are moving into, or have recently moved into, senior executive leadership roles. Participants engage with change and explore how best to increase adaptive capacities.

Who should attend?

This program is designed for senior executives from public service departments and agencies, and the not-for-profit sector.

Program commences

Module 1: 4–8 June 2018, Module 2: 15–19 October 2018

Applications close

16 March 2018

China Reciprocal Program

The China Reciprocal Program is a 2 ½ week, in-country program for senior public sector executives, with a focus on the Chinese system of government and politics, the economy and key contemporary issues. The program visits a number of cities and through a combination of lectures, high-level meetings, industry and community-focused site visits and socio-cultural experiences, provides contrast and demonstrates degrees of development and diversity.

Who should attend?

Secretaries and Deputy-Secretaries of federal and state departments and statutory agency heads in the governments of Australia and New Zealand. This is an ideal program for those with a strategic interest in understanding more about the opportunities presented by engaging with China.

Nomination and selection is managed within a central body in each jurisdiction.

Program commences

September 2018

Call for nominations period

Nominations close 7 June.